

LA COMPAGNIE

PRESS RELEASE

ALL-BUSINESS CLASS AIRLINE, LA COMPAGNIE, CELEBRATES 2015 SUCCESSES AND 2016 GROWTH

February 2, 2016 (JERSEY CITY, NJ) - Just shy of celebrating two years in service, La Compagnie, the exclusively business-class airline flying from New York to Paris and London, celebrated 2015 with multiple highlights including debuting the London route in April, introducing the My Compagnie frequent flyer program in June, and building a loyal following of business and leisure travelers.

Here's a look back on 2015 and what it meant, in numbers, to the growing independent airline:

- Nearly 1,000 flights operated and 48,000 passengers overall
- The aircrafts logged over 3.8 million miles, equivalent to circumnavigating the earth 143 times
- 7,000+ frequent flyer members registered on My Compagnie in only six months
- 12 percent yield in returning passengers
- More than 6,000 bottles of Piper Heidsieck Champagne consumed onboard
- 100,000 travel-size Caudalie "Premier Cru" toiletries distributed to passengers

In 2016, La Compagnie has big plans to continue growing its unmatched product offering with more flights to and from London to reach a daily flight schedule to the United Kingdom capital by the fall. The boutique French airline also aims to introduce increased aircraft capacity to its network.

Take advantage of La Compagnie's unbeatable business-class fares and special promotions to London and Paris by visiting www.LaCompagnie.com.

Available from now through Valentine's Day, La Compagnie's limited-time duo fares to Paris include $2,900 USD round-trips for two, all in, for flights booked by February 14, 2016, for travel through February 21, 2016. For travel to London, La Compagnie is offering unparalleled round-trip duo fares of $2,200 USD for two, all in, for flights booked by February 29, 2016, and solo traveler special round-trip fares of $1,300, taxes included.

###

About La Compagnie

Founded in July 2014 by Founder and CEO Frantz Yvelin with assistance of Deputy CEO Peter Luethi, La Compagnie is an exclusively business-class airline operating regularly scheduled transatlantic flights between New York (Newark International Airport) to Paris (Charles de Gaulle) and London (London Luton Airport). Offering competitively low business-class fares, La Compagnie operates two Boeing 757-200 aircrafts outfitted with 74 lie-flat seats arranged in a spacious 2x2 configuration and provides thoughtful amenities including Samsung Galaxy Tablets, Caudalie cosmetic kits and a "La Carte" dining service created by Michelin-starred chef Christophe Langrée. All passengers can take advantage of La Compagnie's frequent flyer program, MyCompagnie, receiving one to five points for each flight based on fare, which can be used towards a one-way (20 points) or round-trip (40 points) ticket. For reservations on La Compagnie, please contact the airline's call center at 800-218-8187, visit www.LaCompagnie.com or contact your travel advisor.