LA COMPAGNIE BUSINESS-CLASS AIRLINE TO MOVE OPERATION TO PARIS ORLY AIRPORT

Effective summer 2018, boutique airline to operate between Newark International Airport (EWR) and Paris Orly Airport (ORY)

February 28th, 2017 (New York, NY) - La Compagnie, the exclusively business-class boutique airline offering travel between New York and Paris, has announced plans to move its operation to Paris Orly Airport. Starting summer 2018, La Compagnie will operate from Newark International Airport (EWR) to Paris Orly Airport (ORY) offering traveler's convenient access to Paris' city center and beyond destinations.

La Compagnie, which currently flies to and from Paris Charles de Gaulle, has been operating between New York and Paris since 2014. This announcement comes as the latest in a series of positive growth developments for the three-year-old airline, who recently announced the acquisition of two new Airbus A321neos due for delivery in 2019.

"We are proud to announce our transfer to Paris Orly Airport as we continue to invest in developing the airline," said Jean Charles Perino, EVP of Sales and Marketing for La Compagnie. "Orly provides a unique opportunity for the airline to quickly connect customers to Paris' city center and is a great gateway to the French Provinces as well as other popular European destinations. Customers will enjoy the benefits of the human-sized airport from arrival to departure."

Located 8 miles south of Paris' city center, Paris Orly Airport offers convenient access and a seamless passenger experience. The small scale airport (5.9 square miles) serves as a secondary hub for domestic and international flights, including two separate, easy to navigate passenger terminals with shopping and dining options as well as executive lounge access. Details of the official transfer date for Paris Orly Airport will be announced in the coming weeks.
